South Omaha News. Character and the state of the A meeting of the council, sitting as a board of equalization, was held yesierday afternoon for the purpose of taking action as chief engineer at the Hammond sternoon for the purpose of taking action on complaints filed by Councilman Ed Johnston against the assessment of the corporations. All members were present and Mayor Kelly occupied the chair. The protests offered by Johnston were read and then A. L. Bennett was given an opportunity of notifying the board that he objected to the overruling of his protests, which were ordered placed on file by the mayor. A call was made for corporation representatives and an attache of Armour's addressed the board. He said that he believed the filing of such complaints was persecutives and such complaints was persecutive. He did at Syndicate park today.
